NOTICE: YOU MAY HAVE A RIGHT TO CURE: If the cause for termination is based upon the acts of your pet, you may cure the cause and avoid termination of the tenancy by removing the pet from the premises prior to the termination time and date set forth above. If you timely remove the pet and avoid termination, your tenancy may be terminated with at least 24 hour written notice with no right to cure if you return the offending pet to the premises.

If the recipient is a veteran of the armed forces, assistance may be available from a county veterans' services officer or community action agency. Contact information for a local county veterans' service officer and community action agency may be obtained by calling a 2-1-1 information service.

WARNING NOTICE: The defaults or conduct set forth in this notice constitute a violation of your Rental Agreement. If (a) this notice states that the defaults or conduct are curable, as set forth in this notice, and (b) your tenancy is a fixed-term tenancy, then (c) your Landlord may choose to terminate the tenancy at the end of the fixed term if there are three violations of your Rental Agreement within the twelve (12) month period preceding the end of the fixed term. Correcting the third or subsequent violation is not a defense to such a termination.

Landlord/Owner/Agent does not waive the right to terminate tenancy by simultaneously or subsequently served notices.
