Please be advised that the landlord is storing the deceased tenant's personal property at the following address and the landlord considers this property abandoned. The landlord believes that the persons named above are either an heir, devisee, personal representative or a designated person as that term is defined by ORS 90.425(21)(C). The property is stored at a place of safekeeping and described as:

ADDRESS WHERE PROPERTY STORED: _____

The landlord shall allow a person that is an heir devisee or personal representative of the tenant, or an estate administrator of the department, to remove the property if the person contacts the landlord within the time stated below, complies with the requirements of ORS 90.425(21) and provides the landlord with reasonable evidence that the person is an heir, devisee or personal representative or an estate administrator of the department.

If neither an heir, devisee nor personal representative of the tenant nor an estate administrator of the department contact the landlord within the time provided below, the landlord shall allow removal of the personal property by the designated person of the tenant, if the designated person contacts the landlord within the time stated below, complies with the requirements of ORS 90.425(21) and provides the landlord with reasonable evidence that the person is the designated person.

A landlord who allows removal of personal property under ORS 90.425(21) is not liable to another person that has a claim or interest in the personal property.

To retrieve the personal property you must contact the landlord by midnight the end of the day on _____ (Must be a minimum of 8 days from the date of the notice) to arrange for removal of the abandoned personal property. You may contact the landlord at the following address or telephone number to arrange for removal of the personal property within the above-specified time:
