Electricity ____ Natural Gas ____ Water ____ Sewage ____ Garbage ____ Telephone ____ Cable _____

3.2.1 The following utilities are paid directly to the utility or service provider:

_____

3.2.2 The following utilities must be paid to the Landlord because they are provided to the property, but are billed to the Landlord:_____.
The charges for these utilities are billed to the tenant by the landlord on a ratio billing basis as described in the notice provided to you. The charges include the cost of utilities as billed to the landlord plus a fee for administration and billing expenses .

3.3 Security Deposit. Tenant shall deposit the sum shown in the summary table with Landlord upon the execution of the Rental Agreement as a security deposit to be applied to remedy any default by Tenant in performance of Tenant's obligations under the Rental Agreement or as required by law, including, but not limited to unpaid rent, and to repair damages to the Premises caused by Tenant, not including ordinary wear and tear. Tenant acknowledges receiving and signing a property checklist report at the beginning of the tenancy that describes the condition and cleanliness of the dwelling unit. Within one month after termination of the Rental Agreement and delivery of possession of the Leased Premises to Landlord, Landlord shall either refund the deposit to Tenant or shall give Tenant a written accounting by first class mail stating the basis or bases of Landlord's claim to the deposit. Tenant shall provide a forwarding address to the Landlord and U.S. Postal Service upon vacating the Premises. Tenant is responsible for any sums due for defaults of the tenant under the rental agreement and costs of repairing damages that exceed the amount of the security deposit.

The security deposit is held in an escrow account established for that purpose and located at the following bank or lending institution:_____.
(Name and address of institution holding funds)

3.3.1 Upon occupying the unit Tenant shall receive a signed copy of the lease agreement, a move-in form for specifying existing damages to the dwelling unit. Tenant shall examine the premises and complete a move-in checklist. At the termination of the Rental Agreement, Tenant agrees to leave the dwelling unit and premises the same condition (excepting ordinary wear and tear) as at the inception of the Rental Agreement. After termination of occupancy, Landlord shall conduct a re-inspection of the dwelling unit within 3 business days and compile a comprehensive list of any damage done to the premises which is the basis for any charge against the security deposit and the estimated dollar value of such damage and Tenant shall have five business days after the termination of occupancy in order to inspect and ascertain the accuracy of the list of damages.

3.4. Late Fee. Rent is due in advance on the first day of each month without demand and a late charge in the amount shown in the summary table shall be imposed if rent is not received by the landlord by_____. If the rent is paid by mail, a late charge in the amount shown in the summary table shall be imposed if the rent is not mailed by_____.

3.5 Dishonored Check. Any dishonored check shall be subject to the same late charge plus $_____. This sum shall be in addition to any late fees for unpaid rent. If two dishonored checks are received, then the landlord will not accept any additional checks for rent. Rent will have to be paid by money order or cashier's check. Late charges and other fees are due in full when the rent is paid late.

3.6 Application of Payments. All payments may be applied to the Tenant's account in the following order: First to nonrefundable fees and late fees, then to security deposits, then to damages caused by tenant, then to past due rent and then to current rent.
