In addition to any remedies provided under federal law, Tenant shall have the remedies specified in this Section for the following circumstances:

8.1 Termination. If the material noncompliance is not remedied within that time period specified in the notice, this Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall deliver possession of the premises to Landlord within 30 days after expiration of the time period specified in the notice. If possession is not so delivered, then Tenant's notice shall be deemed withdrawn and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect. If the Lease is terminated, Landlord shall return all prepaid rent, security and interest due pursuant to Paragraph 3.4 and 3.5 above.

8.2 Rent Withholding. If there is a material non-compliance by Landlord with the Lease, Tenant may notify Landlord in writing of Tenant's intention to withhold from the monthly rent an amount which reasonably reflects the reduced value of the premises due to the material noncompliance. If Landlord fails to correct the condition within 14 days after being notified by Tenant in writing, Tenant may, during the time such failure continues, deduct from the rent the stated amount.

8.3 Self-Help for Minor Defects. If there is a material non-compliance by Landlord with this Lease and the reasonable cost of compliance does not exceed the greater of $500.00 or one-half of the monthly rent, Tenant may recover damages for the material noncompliance or may notify Landlord in writing of Tenant's intention to correct the condition at Landlord's expense. This paragraph 8.3 shall not be applicable if the reasonable cost of compliance exceeds one month's rent. If Landlord fails to correct the defect within 14 days after being notified by Tenant in writing or as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency, Tenant may have the work done in a workmanlike manner and in compliance with existing law and building regulations and, after submitting to Landlord a paid bill from an appropriate tradesman or supplier, deduct from the rent the amount thereof, not to exceed the limits specified by this paragraph and not to exceed the reasonable price then customarily charged for the work.

8.4 Damages and Injunctive Relief. If there is a material non-compliance by Landlord with this Lease, Tenant may recover damages by claim or defense and/or obtain injunctive relief.

8.5 Failure to Provide Essential Services. If there is a material non-compliance by Landlord with this Lease which constitutes an immediate danger to the health and safety of Tenant, or if, contrary to this Lease, Landlord fails to supply heat, running water, hot water, electricity, gas or plumbing, Tenant may give written notice to Landlord or agent's address listed on the first page of this Lease, or if no address is given, by mail to Landlord's last known address or by other reasonable means. After such notice, Tenant may, during the period of Landlord's noncompliance or failure:

8.5.1 Procure from the utility provider or obtain/repair utility facilities so as to provide reasonable amounts of heat, running water, hot water, electricity, gas or plumbing service, as the case may be, and upon presentation to Landlord of paid receipts, deduct their cost from the rent; or

8.5.2 Recover damages based on the reduction in the fair market value of the premises; or

8.5.3 Procure substitute housing, in which case, Tenant is excused from paying rent for the period of Landlord's noncompliance. Tenant may recover the cost of the reasonable value of the substitute housing (up to an amount equal to the monthly rent for each month or portion thereof of noncompliance as prorated).

In addition to the remedies set forth in paragraphs 8.5.1-8.5.3 above, Tenant may, after such notice and during the period of Landlord's noncompliance or failure:

8.5.4 Withhold from the monthly rent an amount that reasonably reflects the reduced value of the premises due to the material noncompliance or failure if Landlord fails to correct the condition within 24 hours after being notified by Tenant; provided, however, that no rent shall be withheld if the failure is due to the inability of the utility provider to provide service; or

8.5.5 Terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord if the material noncompliance or failure persists for more than 72 hours after Tenant has notified Landlord of the noncompliance or failure, provided, however, that no termination shall be allowed if the failure is due to the inability of the utility provider to provide service; or

8.5.6 Exercise remedies provided in paragraph 8.2 or 8.3 if not proceeding under this paragraph 8.5.

8.6 Failure to Deliver Possession. If Landlord fails to deliver possession of the Apartment at the start of the term of the Lease as shown in the Lease summary or if Landlord delivers possession in a condition that fails to comply with the Landlord's duty to maintain as provided in Paragraph 5.1 above, rent for the Apartment shall abate until possession as required is delivered, and Tenant may:

8.6.1 Terminate the Lease upon written notice to Landlord at which time the Landlord shall return all prepaid rent and security; or

8.6.2 Demand performance of the terms of the Lease, and if necessary, initiate a legal action for possession of the premises against Landlord or any person in wrongful possession of the premises. Tenant shall also recover damages sustained.

8.7 Exceptions. Tenant may not exercise the remedies under this Section 8 or paragraph 7.5 above if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of Tenant, a member of Tenant's family, or other person on the premises with Tenant's consent. Before correcting a condition affecting facilities shared by one or more Apartments, Tenant shall notify all other tenants affected and shall cause the work to be done so as to create the least practical inconvenience to the other tenants.

SECTION 9: MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Nonwaiver/Severance/headings. If Tenant elects to obtain a separate policy, Tenant shall submit to Landlord written proof of such insurance coverage and shall maintain such coverage at all times during the term of the Rental Agreement. Tenant further agrees that except for instances of failure to maintain or repair the Apartment and the Buildings as required in paragraph 5.1 or elsewhere hereunder, or the negligent or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents or employees, Landlord, its agents and employees shall not be liable for any damage to the person or property of Tenant.

9.8.1(a) Immediately vacate the premises and notify Landlord in writing within 14 days thereafter of Tenant's termination of the Lease, in which case this Lease terminates as of the date of the fire or casualty; or

9.8.1(b) If continued occupancy is lawful, vacate any part of the Apartment rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case Tenant's liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the reduction in fair rental value of the Apartment; or

9.8.1(c) If continued occupancy is lawful, vacate any part of the Apartment rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case Tenant's liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the reduction in fair rental value of the Apartment; or

Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment shall be made as of the date of the fire or casualty.

9.9 Waiver of Landlord's Right to Terminate Lease. Acceptance of rent with knowledge of a default in the payment of rent by Tenant constitutes a waiver of Landlord's right to terminate this Lease for that Breach.

9.10 Retaliatory Conduct By Landlord Prohibited.

9.10.1 Protected Activities. Landlord may not knowingly terminate this Lease, increase rent, decrease services, bring or threaten to bring a lawsuit against Tenant for possession or refuse to renew this Lease because the Tenant has in good faith: (a) complained of code violations applicable to the premises to a government agency, elected representative, public official charged with responsibility for code enforcement, a community organization, or the news media; (b) sought assistance of a community organization or news media to remedy a code violation or illegal Landlord practice; (c) requested Landlord to make repairs as required by law or this Lease; (d) became a member of a tenant's union or similar organization; (e) testified in a court or administrative proceeding about the condition of the premises; or (f) exercised any right or remedy provided by law.

9.10.2 Remedies. If Landlord acts in violation of paragraph 9.10.1, Tenant has a defense in any retaliatory action against Tenant for possession and is entitled to the following remedies:

9.10.2(a) Recovery of possession of the Apartment and award of damages of not more than two (2) months' rent or twice the damages sustained, whichever is greater and reasonable attorney's fees; or

9.10.2(b) Termination of this Lease, an award of damages of not more than two (2) months' rent or twice the damages sustained, whichever is greater, reasonable attorney's fees, return of all security and interest due under paragraphs 3.4 and 3.5 above, and all prepaid rent.

Landlord and Tenant agree that if there is evidence of Tenant conduct protected herein within one year prior to the alleged act of retaliation, it shall be presumed that Landlord's conduct was retaliatory. This rebuttable assumption shall not arise if the protected Tenant activity was initiated after the alleged act of retaliation.

9.11 Unlawful Interruption of Tenancy by Landlord Prohibited.

9.11.1 Lockouts Prohibited. Landlord or any person acting at Landlord's direction is prohibited from knowingly ousting or dispossessing or threatening or attempting to oust or dispossess Tenant from the Apartment without authority of law by plugging, changing, adding or removing any lock or latching device, or by blocking any entrance, removing any door or window, interfering with the services to the Apartment (including electricity, gas, hot or cold water, plumbing, heat or telephone service), or by removing tenant's personal property, removing or incapacitating of appliances or fixtures (except for making necessary repairs), or by use of threat of force, violence or injury to Tenant's person or property, or by any act rendering the Apartment or any part thereof or any personal property located therein inaccessible or uninhabitable.

9.11.2 Landlord Actions. The provisions of paragraph 9.11.1 shall not apply where (a) Landlord acts in compliance with the laws of the state of Illinois pertaining to forcible entry and detainer and engages the Sheriff of Cook County to forcibly evict Tenant and Tenant's property; or (b) Landlord acts in compliance with the laws of the state of Illinois pertaining to distress for rent; or (c) Landlord interferes temporarily with possession only as necessary to make needed repairs or inspections provided by law or subsection 7.2 above; or (d) Tenant has abandoned the Apartment as defined in paragraph 7.3 above.

9.11.3 Tenant Remedies. If Tenant in a civil proceeding against Landlord established that a violation of this subsection 9.11 has occurred, Tenant shall be entitled to recover possession of the Apartment or personal property and shall recover an amount equal to not more than two (2) months' rent or twice the actual damages sustained, whichever is greater. Tenant may pursue any civil remedy for a violation of this subsection 9.11 regardless of whether a fine has been entered against the Landlord pursuant to Chicago Municipal Code.

9.12 Rules and Regulations. Any rules and regulations adopted by Landlord and included as an addendum to this Lease are a part of this Lease. Tenant agrees to follow such rules and regulations and Landlord agrees to fairly enforce and follow them. Any rules and regulations adopted after Tenant enters into this Lease that substantially modifies the Tenant's obligations hereunder is not enforceable unless Tenant consents in writing.

9.13 Building Security. Landlord shall provide proper security to the Apartment and building in accordance with the Chicago Residential Building Security Ordinance. Proper security includes: deadbolt locks on front and rear apartment doors, peephole on front apartment door, deadlatch on building entrance door, locks on all windows within 20 feet of the ground or within 10 feet of an exterior porch, stairway or fire escape.
