Amenities: Amenities, including, without limitation, any pools, fitness rooms, clubhouses, hot tubs, spas, business centers, computer rooms, and/or recreational facilities (hereafter, "Amenities") are made available to Resident as a revocable privilege and license, and not as a contractual right.

Resident's failure to allow Landlord access to the premises in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall constitute a material breach of this Lease. Resident expressly agrees that demands or requests by Resident to reschedule entries that are scheduled to occur following service of a twenty-four (24) hours' notice of intent to enter may be construed as a denial of Landlord's lawful right to enter. The foregoing provisions shall not apply if Resident has abandoned or surrendered the premises. For purposes of this paragraph, "Landlord" shall include Landlord's agents, employees, contractors, and subcontractors.

Security Deposits: In addition to all other payments required of Resident(s) hereunder, The security deposit is not intended, nor shall it be construed, to be applied as rent by Resident(s), and the full monthly rent shall be paid on or before the first day of the month, including the last month of possession or of the lease term. Any refund of the unused balance of prepaid rents and deposits will be made jointly in the name of the Resident(s) of record at the time of termination of tenancy and any sharing or division of the settlement for these deposits among the Resident(s) shall be the responsibility of the Resident(s) not the Landlord. If this box ☐ is checked and this agreement is with a property manager/management company the deposit will be transferred to the Owner.

We may also exclude from any outside area or common area a person who refuses to show photo identification or refuses to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant, or guest of a specific resident in the community. If, after notice to you, you allow any excluded person to enter, remain in, and/or occupy your dwelling unit and/or any garage or storage space, said allowance shall constitute a material breach of this Rental Agreement and shall provide a valid basis for terminating your tenancy. The Landlord and Landlord's agents retain control over any common areas of the premises for the purposes of enforcing state trespass laws and shall be the "person in charge" for that purpose as that phrase is defined in ORS 164.205(5). Common areas shall include, without limitation, any locations shared by Residents, such as laundry rooms, courtyards, hallways between dwellings, recreational or meeting facilities, building entryways, and parking lots.

Maintenance: Resident(s) shall keep said premises in a good state of preservation. Resident(s) agrees not to make any alteration, installations, repairs or redecorations of any kind whether permitted by law or otherwise to the premises without written consent by Landlord. Resident(s) agrees to leave the premises completely clean and in good condition and repair when vacating, it being understood that Resident(s) shall not be responsible for reasonable wear and tear (due solely to the passage of time), act of God and the elements.

Abandonment: Resident(s) shall not vacate or abandon the premises at any time during either (a) the term of a fixed term lease, or (b) a month-to-month tenancy, unless Resident(s) first served upon Landlord a valid Notice of Termination compliant with this Rental Agreement and all applicable laws. If Resident(s) wrongfully abandon or vacate the premises, or is dispossessed by process of law or otherwise, any personal property belonging to Resident(s) and left on the premises shall, at the option of Landlord, be deemed abandoned, and Landlord will have the right, but not the obligation, to store, remove, move, sell, destroy, and/or dispose of any and all personal property in the manner as prescribed by law. If Resident(s) abandon the premises during a month-to-month tenancy without proper notice to Landlord, Resident(s) shall be obligated to pay rent for thirty (30) days from the date Landlord first discovers the abandonment and procures possession of the premises.

Termination: Landlord may terminate Resident(s)' tenancy for breaches of this Rental Agreement, including failure to pay rent, noncompliance with the requirements of ORS 90.325 or any other lawful reason upon written notice as provided by law. If the Rental Agreement is for a fixed term with an expiration date within the first year of occupancy, Landlord may terminate this Rental Agreement by notice in writing not less than 30 days prior to the expiration date of the fixed term or the date designated in the notice, whichever is later. If this Rental Agreement is for a fixed term with an expiration date after the first year of occupancy, Landlord may terminate this Rental Agreement as provided in the first sentence of this paragraph, including having a qualifying reason for termination as provided by ORS 90.427. If the Rental Agreement is for a month-to-month tenancy, Landlord may terminate this Rental Agreement without a stated cause at any time during the first year of occupancy on 30 days' written notice. Resident(s) hereby covenants and agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Landlord against all claims, losses or liabilities for injury or death to persons or agents or for damage to or loss of use of any property arising out of any occurrence in, on or about the premises, building, grounds or facilities located within the complex, if caused or contributed to by Resident(s) or Resident(s) agents' or invitees'. Such indemnification shall include and apply to attorney's fees, investigator costs, and other costs actually incurred by Landlord.
